Description:

Located at the Orlando Apopka Airport close to the runway. Priced to sell. Bring your builder to construct the hangar of your dreams. No more renting a hangar or land leases. Now you can build equity and protect your airplane in a privately owned hangar. Aviation business owners will also find value in owning a hangar rather than tossing cash away on a leased location.

Neighbourhood:

Orlando Apopka Airport: The Orlando Apopka Airport is more than just a safe haven for airplanes; it has become a social center for aviation enthusiasts featuring fly-ins, hangar parties and lots of just "plane" hanging out.
